Skate Canada NL is committed to provide training for male skaters, dance and pair teams in hopes to increase the number of participants in these disciplines of our sport! Skate Canada NL has had tremendous success in pairs, dance and male skating in the past and hope to continue to train skaters who represent our province at the National level and beyond!

Information about guest coach:

Paul MacIntosh is an NCCP Level 5 Certified coach with over 27 years of experience. Paul has coached many skaters to the national and international levels including Tessa Virtue and Scott Moir, the 2010 Olympic Champions, coaching them to their 1st International Competition and Junior World Championship, as well as Kaitlyn Weaver and Andrew Poje, coaching them to their 1st World Championships. He is currently a member of Skate Canada's Coaching Development Committee and is certified NCCP Master Learning Facilitator.

"Coaches should always teach with energy and commitment during every training session, you don't know if you are teaching an athlete who is looking for exercise and personal challenges or maybe even the next Olympic Champion. Athletes of all abilities deserve your best" – Paul MacIntosh
